
Our Beliefs

“AchilleanSecure strives to always provide industry leading service using best-of-breed technology. Should our security systems, software or hardware fail and not be rectified within our agreed Service Level Agreement Restoration Time then AchilleanSecure credits you with service credits that can be used to purchase services - this is our promise” Our mission To support the business success of our clients by providing protection of their business IT assets and information whilst adhering to business regulatory requirements via the provision of customised, outsourced, best practice based IT security systems. Statement of Ethics • AchilleanSecure undertakes to maintain the highest standards of integrity and honesty in all of its dealings. • We serve our client base by advancing their interests and work to provide the best possible outcome for the client based on mutually agreed performance indicators of efficiency and effectiveness. • AchilleanSecure is dedicated to the provision of industry best practice for our clients. • AchilleanSecure upholds the highest standard of professionalism. All AchilleanSecure staff are officers or members of relevant IT or IT Security Professional Associations and are required to remain active in the IT community. • AchilleanSecure actively researches, develops, studies, applies and advances new technological knowledge to the benefit of its clients and the IT security community at large. • AchilleanSecure recognises its social responsibility to contribute to the betterment of the community. • All client information as supplied to AchilleanSecure, or its representatives, in any format is strictly confidential.